From Editor

Dear Readers,

2021 is going to end and we are heading a new year and a new volume in 2022. Many things have occurred during this year and Journal Borneo Administrator is staying to do the best to serve you. Next year will be our Volume 18, it means JBA has been 18 years serving readers and stakeholders since its first publication in 2005. Although JBA has been experiencing “up and down” journey during 18 years, it still survives today. And we hope we can always improve our service quality.

In 2021, as we informed you on our previous edition, we have signed agreements with three universities to be an official partner in publishing papers. First, we have made an agreement with Disaster Risk Reduction Center (DRRC), Universitas Indonesia which organized “The 16th APRU (Association of Pacific Rim Universities) Multi-Hazards Symposium 2021”. Second, STIA LAN Jakarta which organized “The 3rd International Conference on Governance, Public Administration, and Social Science (ICoGPASS)”. And third, Faculty of Administrative Science, Universitas Brawijaya, which organized “The 4th Annual International Conference on Business and Public Administration (AICOBPA).

Through the agreements, we hope we can expand our networks for a better future. Some papers from the conferences' participants have been submitted to JBA. The authors come from various institutions and now their papers are in process. The papers are expected to be included in next volume if they meet our quality standard. The conference papers do not prevent other authors to submit their papers. Papers from various authors and various institutions are welcomed as long as the topics meet our scope.

Finally, we would like to express our gratitude to all editor team members and reviewers for their hard work. They have spent their time and energy to allow this journal can be published today. Again, thank you very much and wish you all the best in the new year 2022.

Warm Regards,

Editor
